

Joshua L Maurer

Rocky Hill, CT, 06067

(860) 299-3939

Joshua.Maurer@hotmail.com

Objective

- Experienced, educated veteran interested in a full-time permanent position directly involving work helping clientele expand their businesses or careers.

Experience

Connecticut Innovations, SBIR, US DOC, Program Consultant, Rocky Hill, CT

January 2011 – September 2012

- Project Coordination for event functions such as university career fairs, ceremonies, business events, and other venues ensuring applicable recruitment efforts are carried out, and current projects are highlighted for private and public businesses and organizations.
- Serve as a primary resource in the office for international events and registration, student internship recruitment projects, veteran internship recruitment projects, and other special projects deemed applicable by management.
- Write, edit, publish, outsource: websites, event promotional materials (posters), newsletters, emails, articles, etc for use in outreach activities, event programs and conference and summit planning
- Establish partners and clients with foreign and domestic university, city, state, country, and U.S. agencies for event recruitment and attendance.

United States Coast Guard, IT and Operational Support Specialist 2nd Class (E-5), Washington, DC

June 2000 - June 2008

- Worked and supported anti-drug war efforts on the international level during the War on Terror and The War on Drugs by publishing, editing, and preparing lists of counter-intelligence to foreign and U.S. senior officials in international conferences and classified satellite communications forums.
- Attended international military college at U.S. Government Training Center Yorktown with a concentration in mathematics, typing, database development, military communications, Spanish & multi-cultural awareness, and mission support for preparation for insertion in the international global arena to combat the international War on Drugs in the South American region of the world.
- Assisted in search and rescue missions while out at sea by mathematically planning helicopter launch search patterns, radar detection, and radio interception and translation.
- Traveled to and became aware with international cultures and customs in Spain, Cuba, Panama, and the South American region.
- Honorable Discharge: June 2008.

Education

University of Connecticut, B.A. in Political Science, Storrs, CT

Fall 2008 - May 2011

- Coursework in: English, International and National Security, Economics, Sociology, Spanish, Linguistics, Biology, Mathematics, Anthropology, Psychology, History, Economic Geography, World Diplomacy, Drama, Urban Studies, Law, Philosophy.

ITT Technical Institute, A.A.S. in Computer Networking, St. Rose, LA

September 2002 – September 2004

- Coursework in: Mathematics (algebra, pre-calculus), computer operating systems, database development, windows, MAC OS X, Linux, Unix, MS Office (Excel, Office, PowerPoint), network hardware and software configuration, Internet development and support, website design.

Additional Information

Awards

- U.S. Coast Guard Good Conduct Medal
- U.S. Coast Guard Transportation 9-11 Service Medal/Ribbon
- National Defense Medal/Ribbon

Activities & Interests

- Spanish Speaker (Castilian)
- Helping People live their lives to the fullest
- 5K and 10K Runner
- Volunteer Teacher and representative for Junior Achievement
- Technology (Anything new and exciting!)